THE IMPORTED MEAT ACT

Extract from an act of Congress entitled "An act to provide revenue, to regulate commerce with foreign countries, to encourage the industries of the United States, to protect American labor, and for other purposes," approved June 17, 1930 (Public No. 361, 71st Cong.).

TITLE III—SPECIAL PROVISIONS

PART I—MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 306. * * * Meats—importation prohibited in certain cases. *

(b) Meats unfit for human food.—No meat of any kind shall be imported into the United States unless such meat is healthful, wholesome, and fit for human food and contains no dye, chemical, preservative, or ingredient which renders such meat unhealthful, unwholesome, or unfit for human food, and unless such meat also complies with the rules and regulations made by the Secretary of Agriculture. All imported meats shall, after entry into the United States in compliance with such rules and regulations, be deemed and treated as domestic meats within the meaning of and subject to the provisions of the act of June 30, 1906 (Thirty-fourth Statutes at Large, page 674), commonly called the "meat inspection amendment," and the act of June 30, 1906 (Thirty-fourth Statutes at Large, page 768), commonly called the "food and drugs act," and acts amendatory of, supplementary to, or in substitution for such acts.

(c) Regulations.—The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this section, and in such rules and regulations the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe the terms and conditions for the destruction of all * * * meats, offered for entry and refused admission into the United States, unless such * * * meats be exported by the consignee within the time fixed therefor in such rules and regulations.

SEC. 653. Effective date of act.—Except as otherwise provided, this act shall take effect on the day following the date of its enactment.
